Save time & share information

Create Lists of detailed title information—to save, annotate, print, and e-mail:

- ▶ Stores can offer special e-mail alerts based on customer preferences.
- ▶ Library patrons can search remotely, check if a title is on the shelf, and e-mail requests to the library.
- ▶ Academic Librarians can share information with colleagues, professors, researchers, students.

Search your library's catalogue to see if you have a title, or if it's frequently out and needs multiple copies.
