RESULTS ARE ORGANIZED:

Initial Search Results (1) are displayed as an easy-to-read brief list broken into three formats: Books, AudioBook, and Videos.

Selecting to view all results in one format brings patrons to Search Results (2) listed with cover images, brief title details, and icons indicating the types of additional content one can expect in the title's full description.

Re-sort search results by title, author, price, or release date or click on the status links to change between Active, Inactive, and Forthcoming items.

One simple click on the title or cover image will reveal even more bibliographic information (3) including a cover image, full-text previews, publisher and bestseller information, awards won, and media mentions (find books mentioned on Oprah's Book Club!). From here a patron can add this title to an existing List or create a new one, see if the title is in the library, request the title, purchase the title online, e-mail or print title details for reference.
